

Earn Well for Teenagers

What It Is: Earning is how we receive money by being paid for our labor or our products.

Why It Matters: Work can enrich our lives when we're earning money in ways that give us a sense of accomplishment and meaning.

	Module 1	Module 2	Module 3
Module Title	How to Get Money	Exploring Work That Fits You	Applying for a Job
Module Number	1-EA-T	2-EA-T	3-EA-T
Module Learner Outcomes	1: Participants will be able to identify what an income is. 2: Participants will be able to name ways that teenagers can earn money. 3: Participants will be able to explain the difference between a wage and a salary.	1: Participants will be able to identify what a career is. 2: Participants will be able to describe what affects a person's career and job choices. 3: Participants will be able to explain how education can affect lifetime income.	1: Participants will be able to explain what a W-4 is. 2: Participants will be able to name at least one piece of information needed to complete a W-4. 3: Participants will be able to identify at least one factor that affects take-home pay.
Module Ties to Jump$tart Standards<sup>1</sup>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Standard 2—Income and Careers</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Standard 1—Income and Careers</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Standard 3—Income and Careers</li> </ul>

1. Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy. National Standards in K–12 Personal Finance Education: With Benchmarks, Knowledge Statements, and Glossary. Third Edition. Washington, D.C.: Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy, 2007.